OUR FRIEND IN HEAVEN

2. Past suffering now, the tender heart of Jesus, on his Father's throne, still in our sorrow bears a part, and feels it as he felt his own.

3. Sweet thought! we have a friend above, our weary falt'ring steps to guide, who follows with the eye of love the little flock for whom he died.

4. O Jesus, teach us more and more on thee alone to cast our car; and, gazing on thy cross, adore the wondrous grace that brought thee there.
