WHO IS HE THAT CONDEMNETH?

- 2. With him nailèd to the cross, with him buried in the grave, with him raised from bonds and death, life for ever thus I have.
- 3. He the fight for me hath fought, and for me the battle won; thus in weakness I am made victor through the conquering One.
- 4. He the guilt for me hath borne, condemnation now is done: wrath has vanished; I am made righteous in the righteous One.
- 5. On me love for ever rests;like a river, peace doth flow:Christ the mighty work hath done;God is for me, this I know.
- 6. His name now is one with mine, I in him, and he in me; on his breastplate is my name, Priest and Advocate is he.
- 7. Covered with thy robe, O Christ, all thy beauty now is mine; me in thee the Judge beholds, my life now is lost in thine.
- 8. Since thou livest, I shall live; never canst thou me disown. Not the cross for me remains, nor the manger, but the crown.

Words: Horatius Bonar. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2013 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/845/