THE ETERNAL ROCK

- 2. All else is moving; it alone shakes not, nor yields, nor crumbles down: time and its tempests it defies; changes to it are things unknown.
- 3. It grows not old, it turns not grey; it boldly baffles every shock: repelling earth, defying hell, it standeth firm, the eternal Rock.
- 4. The earthquakes of the ages strike against it with increasing rage; it trembles not, nor shrinks in fear from the dark warfare of the age.
- 5. It lifts its head above the clouds, it braves the wrath and scorn of foes; deep as the everlasting hills, it strikes its roots in still repose.
- 6. Rock of eternity, amid all changes here, I rest on thee! Rock of the ages that are past, Rock of the ages yet to be.

Words: Horatius Bonar. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2013 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/853/