THE MEETING

2. For ever, through endless ages, thy cross and thy sorrow shall be the glory, the song, and the sweetness that make heaven heaven to me.

3. Let one in his innocence glory, another in works he has done – thy Blood is my claim and my title, beside it, O Lord, I have none.

4. The Scorned, the Despised, the Rejected, thou hast won thee this heart of mine; in thy robes of eternal glory thou welcomest me to thine.
