MANIFOLD LIGHT

- 2. Light of the cross! shine forth, where he who took our death upon him died, that life might freely to the dead flow forth from him, the crucified.
- 3. Light of the empty tomb! where for three days our mighty Surety lay, pledge of the penalty for ever paid, the darkness passed away.
- 4. Light of the risen Christ, in whose bright rising we our rising see, let thy sweet splendour cheer, and point us to our morn of victory!
- 5. Light of the coming King, of him who cometh to put on the crown he won for us and for himself, oh, shine with radiance all thine own!
- 6. Light of the glory, shine! the splendour of the undimmed heaven above, the glory of our God and of the Lamb, the Sun of joy and love.
- 7. Light of the city, shine! the new Jerusalem, with gems and gold; the holy beauty of thy wondrous walls, and gladness all untold.
