SUCCOUR FOR THE TEMPTED

2. O Lord, through tribulation our pilgrim journey lies,through scorn and sore temptation, and watchful enemies;'midst never-ceasing dangers we through the desert roam; as pilgrims here, and strangers, we seek the rest to come.

3. O Lord, thou too hast hasted this dreary desert through, once fully tried and tasted its bitterness and woe; and hence thy heart is tender, in truest sympathy, – though now the heavens render all praise to thee on high.

4. Oh, by thy Holy Spirit reveal in us thy love!
The joy we shall inherit with thee, our Head, above!
May all this consolation our trembling hearts sustain – sure, though through tribulation, the promised rest to gain.
