O LORD, 'TIS JOY TO LOOK ABOVE

- 2. To look beyond the long, dark night, and hail the coming day, when thou, to all thy saints in light, thy glories wilt display.
- 3. And, oh! 'tis joy the path to trace, by thee so meekly trod, and learn of thee to walk in grace and fellowship with God:
- 4. Strangers with thee, thy cross to bear, while dead to all beneath; thy yoke to take, thy sufferings share, obedient unto death.
- 5. 'T is joy to serve thy members here, our faithful zeal to prove, and spend our lives and strength to cheer the objects of thy love.
- 6. Joy to confess thy blessèd name, the virtues of thy blood, and to the wearied heart proclaim, "Behold the Lamb of God!"
